Artificial Intelligence has taken the world by storm and revolutionized how we think and process information. It is rapidly evolving into a super-intelligent machine. It is poised to be the greatest invention of all time and has the potential to benefit everyone on earth.

Who are the masterminds behind these machines, feeding them data and teaching them how to think and make decisions? What are their worldviews, and how do they perceive society at large?

In Babel Will Fall: Is the Church Ready? Adam R. Hunter boldly connects Artificial Intelligence as the new "Tower of Babel" and draws striking parallels to the original Genesis account. He cites its narcissistic developers as they seek to engineer a utopian existence free from antiquated moralities in a new era of enlightenment, stamping out God and His followers.

Adam R. Hunter is LISW working as a crisis therapist. He lives with his wife and daughter in North Central Ohio. He is available for speaking engagements, book signings, etc. He loves to share the goodness of God, and his bold faith in God's plan and purpose for all!
